How can Holmesglen help you in 2011?
We have a broad range of services on offer to secondary schools throughout Victoria.

Career expos/events
If you would like a Holmesglen representative to attend your school’s career event, please contact us with the details.

Campus tours
Tours can be arranged for our Chadstone, Moorabbin or Waverley campuses. They provide a fantastic opportunity for students to see our great facilities and discover the breadth of courses available. We are also now offering an optional Amazing Race around our campus at the conclusion of the tour. Students are provided with activity sheets with questions, and are required to go around campus to find the answers. You can mark off the sheets, and we will provide prizes for your winners.

Publications
Holmesglen representatives are available to make presentations which can be tailored to suit your students’ needs and cover topics of your choice.

Career Practitioner Seminars 2011
This year Holmesglen will be running three free Career Practitioner Seminars, each focusing on a different topic. The seminars provide a chance to find out more about the courses Holmesglen offers, providing you with information to guide your students in making suitable career and study decisions. The seminars can also be used as part of professional development.

The Award Winning Edition
Throughout 2010, Holmesglen was making its mark by winning a variety of different awards and prizes.

2010 Monash Youth Film Festival
Current and past Holmesglen students utilized the terrace with the Best Film Award being awarded to previous student’s Chris Smillie, Robert Smillie, Loli Young and James Rusher for their film ‘Red Peak’, ‘Silent Cry’, a collaborative effort by current students Melany Pascual, Adrian Epper, Sarmnna Blates, Anne Yeats and Phil Jennings won the Best Drama Award.

Australian Culinary Challenge Victoria
Holmesglen Chef and cookery trainer Leslie Chan won Gold in the Field 13, a three course Modern Australian menu for one cover.

Holmesglen electric win with Australian Vocational Student of the Year
Michael Hogan, former Holmesglen student and current Automotive Electrical Technology teacher at Holmesglen, has won the 2010 Australian Vocational Student of the Year Award.

Michael was one of eight finalist in his category at the Australian Training Awards which were held in November last year.

Michael studied the Certificate II in Automotive Electrical Technology at Holmesglen. After completing his course, he started his own automotive accessory business competing to various Victorian stores. He then went on to complete the Certificate IV in Training & Assessment and is now teaching and mentoring students in the same subject he studied.

The Certificate II in Automotive Electrical Technology provides training in the installation and service of automotive sound systems, security systems, cellular phones and OBD (On Board Diagnostics). The course can be studied 6 months full time, or as a 1 year VET in Schools program.

The course is also a gentle introduction to electrical studies.

“I feel fortunate to not only be rewarded for doing something I love but being able to pursue a career in it. I found Holmesglen is the perfect combination of hands on work and practical theory,” Michael said.
