

What is required for a student under 18 years of age

You have signed a welfare agreement adhering to the Welfare Arrangements in place while you are a student under 18 years of age attending Holmesglen Institute.

Below are your requirements whilst under 18:

- Have regular contact with your welfare carer
- Live in appropriate accommodation eg. Homestay
- Act in a courteous and respectful manner
- No change of address without the approval of your welfare carer & Holmesglen
- Be at home at 9pm each night and inform the Homestay if you will not be home for dinner
- Contribute to household chores and ensure that your bedroom remains clean and tidy at all times
- Pay rent on time
- Not behave in an inappropriate manner (e.g. loud music at night)
- Not have friends at the house without approval from your Homestay
- You must have permission from your welfare carer to stay overnight at a friends house. You will need to provide your Homestay & welfare carer of the friends name, address and telephone number
- Adhere to the relevant laws of Australia, especially those governing people under 18 years of age e.g. Alcohol not to be consumed, driving cars prohibited, purchasing cigarettes prohibited.
- Obtain satisfactory attendance in class and satisfactory progress in my academic studies
- Accept responsibility for your financial expenses

Your welfare carer has the responsibility to report any misbehaviour to the Institute and your family. In the case of any illegal misbehaviour, you have understood that your welfare carer is required to advise any relevant authorities (DIAC and/or Police).

Your welfare carer is required to report on your academic progress to your family.

You cannot change your welfare carer without the express permission from your parents and approval of Holmesglen Institute according to government requirements.

You cannot change accommodation/living address without the express permission of your welfare carer and approval of Holmesglen Institute.

If you do not meet the above requirements, Holmesglen Institute may cancel your enrolment and notify the Department of Immigration and Citizenship, which may directly affect your Student Visa to study in Australia.
